Patents

We assist clients in all aspects of the patent process, including, but not limited to:

- Performing patentability searches and formulating patentability opinions
- Preparing, filing and prosecuting patent applications in the United States Patent and Trademark Office
- Preparing patent applications and interfacing with foreign patent offices through local counsel for international filing and prosecution
- Conducting administrative appeals, interferences, reissues, and reexaminations
- Monitoring issued patents
- Formulating patent infringement and patent validity opinions
- Licensing inventions
- Performing due diligence audits
- Conducting patent litigation

Not only do we represent clients in a wide range of technological fields, such as the medical, educational, sports, laser, construction, real estate development, tourism, e-commerce and computer industries, but we also represent a wide range of clients, including sole inventors, small start-up companies, large corporations, hospitals and universities.
