ORLANDO, FL - Lowndes is pleased to announce that Shareholder John Ruffier has been elected to the board of directors of United Arts of Central Florida.

United Arts is a collaboration of individuals, businesses, governments and school districts, foundations, arts and cultural organizations, and artists. Its mission is to enrich communities by investing in arts, science and history. United Arts serves residents and visitors in Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties through more than 60 local arts, science and history organizations. It raises and distributes funds for these cultural groups and provides management, administrative and advisory services.

At the firm, Ruffier concentrates his legal practice on commercial real estate, representing clients within Florida and across the nation. As the firm's Senior Housing Group chair, he also helps companies build their senior living portfolios from the ground up.

Lowndes has a long track record of serving in the art community in Central Florida. Shareholders Hal Kantor and Brendan Lynch have served as chairman of United Arts.
