Kelsey Burgess is an attorney in the Corporate, Business and Tax Department. She primarily focuses her practice on corporate and securities law, with a special emphasis on representing public and private clients in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, business transactions, financing and other general corporate and securities matters.

Kelsey also has experience advising clients regarding complex bankruptcy, restructuring and creditors' rights matters, and she has represented debtors and official unsecured creditors' committees in complex Chapter 11 proceedings.

Prior to joining Lowndes, Kelsey was an attorney with an Am Law Top 10 law firm in Miami, Florida, where she handled bankruptcy and insolvency issues for clients in a broad range of industries.

Kelsey earned her undergraduate degree in Legal Studies from the University of Central Florida and her law degree cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. While in law school, she was named to the Dean's List every semester and was recognized with Book Awards in both Civil Procedure and Trial Practice. She also served as executive forum editor of the Florida Law Review and as a federal judicial intern at the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

In her free time, Kelsey is an avid reader and enjoys cooking and baking, taking Peloton classes and visiting Walt Disney World.
