Andrew Kelly is an attorney in the firm's Corporate & Securities Group. He focuses his practice in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, financing and other general corporate and securities matters.

Andrew also regularly works alongside the firm's Real Estate Group, and he has experience working with clients on a wide range of real estate matters including real estate development, finance and transactions, condominiums, property owners' associations, commercial leasing, commercial lending and title insurance.

Prior to attending law school, Andrew worked as an alternative investment wholesaler for CNL Securities Corp., providing counsel and support regarding various alternative investments to financial professionals.

Andrew is an active member of the Orange County Bar Association, and for the past two years, he has served as co-chair of the annual "Gator Bus Trip" event hosted by the Young Lawyers Section.

Andrew earned his law degree from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he competed as a member of the Environmental Moot Court Team and served as senior articles editor of the Florida Journal of International Law. He received his undergraduate degree in applied economics from The Florida State University. While there, he served as an intern for both the Florida Senate in Tallahassee and the U.S. House of Representatives in Washington, D.C.

When not practicing law, Andrew enjoys fishing and playing saxophone and keyboard in an Orlando-based band.
