

Services & Industries

Commercial Litigation

Lowndes attorneys represent clients in large-scale commercial litigation and have handled some of the highest profile legal cases in the national news. Our commercial trial attorneys bring varied and extensive experience to a broad range of local, national and international matters - from simple contract disagreements to complex trade secret matters involving multiparty litigation across several venues.

We have extensive civil trial experience and our trial attorneys have decades of experience in all forms of alternative dispute resolution, including arbitration, mediation and evaluation.

A significant portion of our practice is devoted to:

- Banking & Finance
- Civil Theft and Misappropriation
- Creditors' Rights Litigation
- Construction Litigation
- Contractual and Other Business Obligation Matters
- Corporate & Commercial
- General Business Litigation
- Lender Liability Claims
- Eminent Domain Proceedings
- Employment & Labor
- Energy/Public Utilities
- Entertainment
- Fraud
- Insurance
- Intellectual Property
- Patent Infringement
- Professional Malpractice Litigation
- Securities & Commodities
- Surety Litigation
- Tax
- Trade Secrets
- Trusts & Estates

Firm attorneys are admitted to practice, and appear before state and federal trial and appellate courts, in many different litigation forums throughout the country. Our commercial trial attorneys are well known for their responsive, decisive and trusted representation, and tenacious commitment to our clients.

Key Contact

Greg McNeill

Shareholder, General Counsel & Chair, Litigation
407-418-6309
greg.mcneill@lowndes-law.com
