Shareholder Tara Tedrow, recognized as a leading land-use attorney in the region, recently shared insights on the significant growth occurring along the Wekiva Parkway in an Orlando Business Journal article entitled, "Closing the Loop: How Completion of Orlando's Beltway Drives Real Estate." Tedrow is involved in several projects in the area, including the highly anticipated Wyld Oaks development.

"The sheer number of projects in the vicinity of the parkway I am working on, or are in the pipeline, has increased dramatically over the past three years, and I don't forecast any slowdown on that growth," Tedrow told OBJ.
