Shareholder Rebecca Wilson recently discussed the Live Local Act during her conversation with 90.7 WMFE, where she provided insights and addressed misconceptions surrounding the legislation.

“It is not a free pass for developers. All it does is say, you don’t have to go get this rezoned and do it in front of the commission, but you still have to do all the other steps in the development process,” Wilson said. “That’s why you don’t see that many builders who have used it yet.”
