

Lowndes Welcomes Maria Mason as Chief Operating Officer

Firm News
Lowndes
03.10.2025

Related Attorneys

Maria Mason

Lowndes is pleased to announce that Maria Mason has joined the firm as chief operating officer. In this key leadership role, Mason will oversee all administrative and business functions, including finance, technology, human resources, facilities, communications, marketing and general operations.

“We are thrilled to welcome Maria to the firm,” said Quino Martinez, Lowndes President and CEO. “As our COO, Maria will oversee the firm’s day-to-day operations and play a critical role in driving initiatives that enhance client service, efficiency, and collaboration. Her extensive experience and proven leadership will be instrumental in achieving our strategic goals and further elevating the firm’s success.”

Mason brings 25 years of legal management experience to Lowndes. She most recently served as business director of Greenberg Traurig’s Austin, Texas, office. Her career includes leadership positions at law firms in Hawaii, Maine and Washington, D.C.

“I am honored to become part of such a well-respected firm with a 55-year legacy of excellence and client service,” Mason said. “This is an exciting opportunity to build on that foundation by driving strategic growth, enhancing operational efficiency, and positioning Lowndes for long-term success. I look forward to working alongside the firm’s talented attorneys and staff to implement forward-thinking strategies that elevate the client experience and strengthen our competitive edge.”

A Certified Legal Manager, Mason has been an active member of the Association of Legal Administrators for over two decades, serving in numerous leadership positions at both national and local levels. She holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.