

Insights

City of Leesburg Denies Proposed Residential Development Moratorium

Article

Lowndes

04.15.2025

As an update to our April 1, 2025, article, the Leesburg City Commission voted on April 14, 2025, to deny the proposed annexation and residential development moratorium. Our team will continue to monitor proposals of future ordinances that impact development.

If you have additional questions about the proposed moratorium, or any real property rights, land use, zoning, and business matters, please contact the Lowndes Land Use Team.

Related Attorneys

Tara L. Tedrow

Related Expertise

Land Use & Zoning

Real Estate

Real Estate Development