Update on Orange County's Proposed Ordinance to Halt Certain Development Projects

Article

Lowndes

10.30.2024

On October 29, 2024, the Orange County Board of County Commissioners approved a new ordinance that will temporarily suspend all comprehensive plan text and map amendments, rezonings, and special exceptions, but provides a window of time between October 29, 2024, and December 11, 2024, to submit small-scale comprehensive plan amendments, rezonings, and special exceptions. The deadline to request a pre-application meeting for comprehensive plan amendments is November 14, 2024.

We previously reported on Orange County's proposed ordinance suspending the processing of certain comprehensive plan amendments, rezonings, and special exceptions.
